SHARING YOUR PERSONAL DATA

THET does not share your data with any other charity, public body or commercial organisation, unless we have to do so either for legal or compliance reasons, or where it is more cost effective and efficient for us to use a third party to deliver a product or service on our behalf.

We will share your personal information with our colleagues within THET globally. This includes colleagues who work in some countries that do not have the same data protection laws as the EU. However, we take seriously our responsibility to protect your personal information and take the same measures to do this as we would in the UK.

HOW AND WHY WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We use your personal data for the following purposes:

- TO MANAGE YOUR DONATIONS, REQUESTS OR CALLS TO ACTION

When you interact with us, we use your information to perform our services in relation to your donation, to deal with your queries and requests and to process responses to our campaigns or advocacy work.

- TO FUNDRAISE AND PROMOTE THET'S WORK, IN BOTH FINANCIAL AND NON-FINANCIAL WAYS

We know how fundamental our supporters and donors are to the work we do. In order to develop and foster your ongoing support, we want to keep in touch with you through feedback and further opportunities and invitations to support our work in both financial and non-financial ways.

- TO COMMUNICATE WITH YOU AND MANAGE OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH YOU

Occasionally we may need to contact you by mail, email and/or telephone for administrative or operational reasons. Please be aware that these communications are not made for marketing purposes and as such, you will continue to receive them even if you opt out of receiving marketing communications from us.

We will also use your personal data if we contact you after you have sent us a request, filled in a web form through our website or contacted us on social media.

- TO PERSONALISE AND IMPROVE YOUR EXPERIENCE WHEN ENGAGING WITH THET

We may use your personal data to tailor our communications to your needs and preferences and to provide you with a more relevant experience, for example, by sending you communications on topics you have shown an interest in.

We may also collect information about how you use our website, which pages of our website you visit most and what you search for, to understand your preferences. We may use this information to tailor content and, if you have agreed to receive marketing communications, to send you relevant messages that we think would be of interest to you.

- TO INFORM YOU ABOUT OUR NEWS AND WAYS YOU MAY BE ABLE TO HELP OR COLLABORATE WITH THET

We may send you direct email or mail communications, if you have indicated that you are happy to receive these – for example, when you have donated or completed a campaign action or subscribed to our newsletter and you have opted in to receiving such communications.

If you are happy to receive such communications, we will provide you with news, information about our fundraising, advocacy and campaigning work, together with opportunities and invitations to attend events or support THET in other ways.

Please note that we do not share your contact details and other personal data with any other charities or companies for marketing purposes.

If you do not want to receive such communications from us, you can simply tell us by ticking or clicking the relevant box on various marketing materials, unsubscribing at the bottom of every newsletter or by contacting our Communications Manager via email edvige.bordone@thet.org

- TO MANAGE OUR VOLUNTEERS

We need to process and keep some personal information in order to recruit and manage people that volunteer for THET.

- TO MAINTAIN AND IMPROVE OUR OWN ACCOUNTS, RECORDS AND ORGANISATIONAL PROCESSES, TO FULFIL OUR ADMINISTRATIVE PURPOSES AND PROTECT OUR CHARITABLE INTERESTS

The purposes for which we will use your information include accounting, billing and audit, credit or other payment card verification, fraud screening, safety, security and legal purposes, statistical and marketing analysis, legacy administration, systems testing, maintenance and development.

LEGAL BASIS FOR PROCESSING YOUR PERSONAL DATA

The General Data Protection Regulation requires organisations to consider the legal basis on which they process personal data.

THET will process personal data in line with the following principles:

- Where it is necessary for us to fulfil a contract with you.
- With your consent: we will only send you emails, make telephone calls or send you SMS text messages with your explicit consent.
- When it is in our legitimate interests to do so: as part of our engagement and efforts to build long-term relationships with our supporters, we will send you communications and marketing material via post unless you have told us you do not wish to receive these communications.

HOW LONG DO WE KEEP PERSONAL DATA?

- We will keep your personal data only for as long as we consider it necessary to carry out each processing activity.
- We maintain data retention criteria to help implement this. This takes account of our legal and accounting obligations, balancing this with what would be considered reasonable.

- We are required to keep details of financial transactions, including donations, for seven years to meet accountancy and HMRC requirements. We will anonymise or delete personal data if, after a period of seven years, we have not had any contact or communication from you (this will be measured on a rolling seven-year period) – subject to special circumstances concerning legacies.
- Many supporters kindly tell us that they have included a gift to THET in their will, or that they intend to do so. We retain their personal information indefinitely so that we can keep in touch during their lifetime and provide a caring and efficient legacy administration service.

When you provide your personal data through our website, this information is transmitted across the internet securely using high-grade encryption.

The information that you provide to us will be held in our systems, which are located on our premises or those of an appointed third party, acting as our Data Processor.
