ABOUT THE ROLE

THET is a well-established charity that has been operating for over 30 years and is fast expanding its event offering. This is a fantastic opportunity for a student or graduate of Event Management, Administration or Design to gain hands on experience in a fast paced and dynamic global health charity. The position will gain project management, digital and marketing skills and work with external suppliers including sponsors and speakers.

The Events Officer will work on an expanding global portfolio of events, helping us to deliver on our vision of creating a world where everyone has access to quality healthcare.

Reporting to our Head of External Engagement and working closely with a highly supportive team of colleagues from across the organisation, the post holder will excel in written English, and in creating opportunities for people to collaborate on the production of events.

If you are a forward-thinking person with strong professional skills, a committed team player and excellent communicator who loves the fast-paced nature of events then this is the role for you! A talented self-starter, you will be joining a five-person External Engagement Team who are dedicated to THET's mission of ensuring everyone everywhere can access quality healthcare.

ABOUT THET

Today, one billion people will never see a qualified health worker in their lives.

Since 1988, THET has been working to change this. From reducing maternal deaths in Uganda to improving the quality of hospital care for injured children in Myanmar, we work to strengthen local health systems and build a healthier future for all.

We do this by leveraging the expertise and energy of the UK health community, supporting Health Partnerships between NHS institutions, Royal Colleges and academic institutions in the UK and those overseas. In the past 15 years alone THET has reached over 200,000 health workers across 31 countries in Africa, the Middle East and Asia in partnership with over 130 UK institutions. You can learn more about our work on our website.

MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES:

Supporting the implementation of our expanding events portfolio:

- Support the planning, delivery and evaluation of our online and in-person events in the UK and globally. This includes scheduling, liaising with health professionals and facilitators, managing the booking process, event administration and stewardship of attendees, ensuring smooth running of the events, and following up/evaluating post-event.
- Ensure delegate experience and event accessibility is continually improving and adapting with sector trends.
- Working with the Digital Engagement Officer to support the ongoing development of our Pulse community platform and other digital platforms for event management and hosting.

Supporting the delivery of income generation strategy targets associated with the events portfolio:

- Assess and develop our events offer by creating innovative and exciting approaches that build income for the charity.
- Developing sponsorship proposals, seeking out potential sponsors and supporting their partnership with us.
- Support the delivery and expansion of our global presence by working with overseas colleagues to support aspects of programme delivery through events.

Ensuring our events are marketed effectively within and beyond the Health Partnership community:

- Work with colleagues across the charity to promote our events to ensure our global community know about and can attend our events and that we reach new audiences both on and offline.
- Develop and maintain a THET events calendar, ensuring that major events are identified early; support senior management and relevant programme teams to develop and manage messages and supporting information material to ensure the success of major events.
- Working with the Communications Coordinator to create effective and engagement marketing materials.
